New Bedford May 5th 1877.

Received of Joseph A Buck, executor of the will of Lucy S Buckley, one china tea set, one large picture, one silver watch and fifty dollars in money to purchase a black dress, all of the above articles being left me in the will of the said Lucy S Buckley and there described as follows, to wit:

"I bequeath to Olive P Buckley my china tea set and my son George's large Picture and fifty dollars to purchase her a black dress, also my son George's watch."

Olive P. Buckley.
